Mercy Center for Women Receives Transformational $1.75 Million Gift

Erie, PA – The Mercy Center for Women today announced a transformative $1.75 million gift from an anonymous donor. This marks the largest single contribution in the Center’s history and will provide critical support for families fleeing domestic abuse, homelessness, and addiction.

“We are incredibly grateful to this generous donor for their incredible generosity,” said Jennie Hagerty, Executive Director of the Mercy Center for Women. “This gift will ensure long-term housing stability and sustainability for the women, men, and children we serve.”

The Mercy Center for Women provides safe haven and supportive services to families in need. With this new funding, the Center will be able to expand its campus life and its mission will continue to grow throughout the Erie community.

“No words can define the true blessing our Christmas Angel has delivered to our families this season,” said Hagerty. “Our gift in return will be to deliver a journey of warmth, love, safety, and transparency to our donor and the Erie community.”

The Mercy Center for Women is committed to honoring the donor’s wish to remain anonymous. However, the Center’s leadership expressed their deepest gratitude for this life-changing contribution.

“As 1 Timothy 6:20 reminds us, ‘Keep safe what has been entrusted to you,’” said Hagerty. “We take this responsibility very seriously and are committed to using this gift wisely to make a lasting impact on the lives of those we serve.”
